

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: People v Keith Lamont Rogers
Docket No. 249496
L.C. No. 03-002196-01

Michael J. Talbot, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to substitute as retained appellate counsel is GRANTED. Attorney Gerald M. Lorence is substituted as retained counsel for defendant-appellant in place of appointed counsel John D. Roach, Jr. The motion to remand received on March 9, 2005, is accepted for filing. The time for filing an answer to the motion under MCR 7.211(B)(2)(a) shall be counted from the date of the Clerk's certification of this order.

The motion to accept defendant-appellant's supplemental brief is DENIED for failure to suggest any reason that defendant-appellant should be allowed to file the proposed supplemental brief approximately one year after filing his brief on appeal. Defendant-appellant makes no mention of the 48-page brief on appeal that was filed on March 29, 2004, and it appears that the proposed, 36-page supplemental brief raises some of the same issues that have already been raised in defendant-appellant's brief on appeal. The proposed supplemental brief received on March 9, 2005, is returned with this order.
